

European Exploration and Land Claims, 1488–1610

European Exploration

Ch. 14, Sec. 1

Influences

- Exposure to goods in during the
- Trade goods from Asia were expensive to obtain through
- encouraged people to investigate the world
- account of China & Renaissance ideas made people curious as to what else was out there

Henry the Navigator

- Prince of _____ who funded exploration
- Saw economic gains by trading directly with _____
- Advances made by Henry:
 - Improved _____ by hiring _____ (map makers) to sail with explorers
 - _____ : new ship that was lighter, faster, and could sail _____

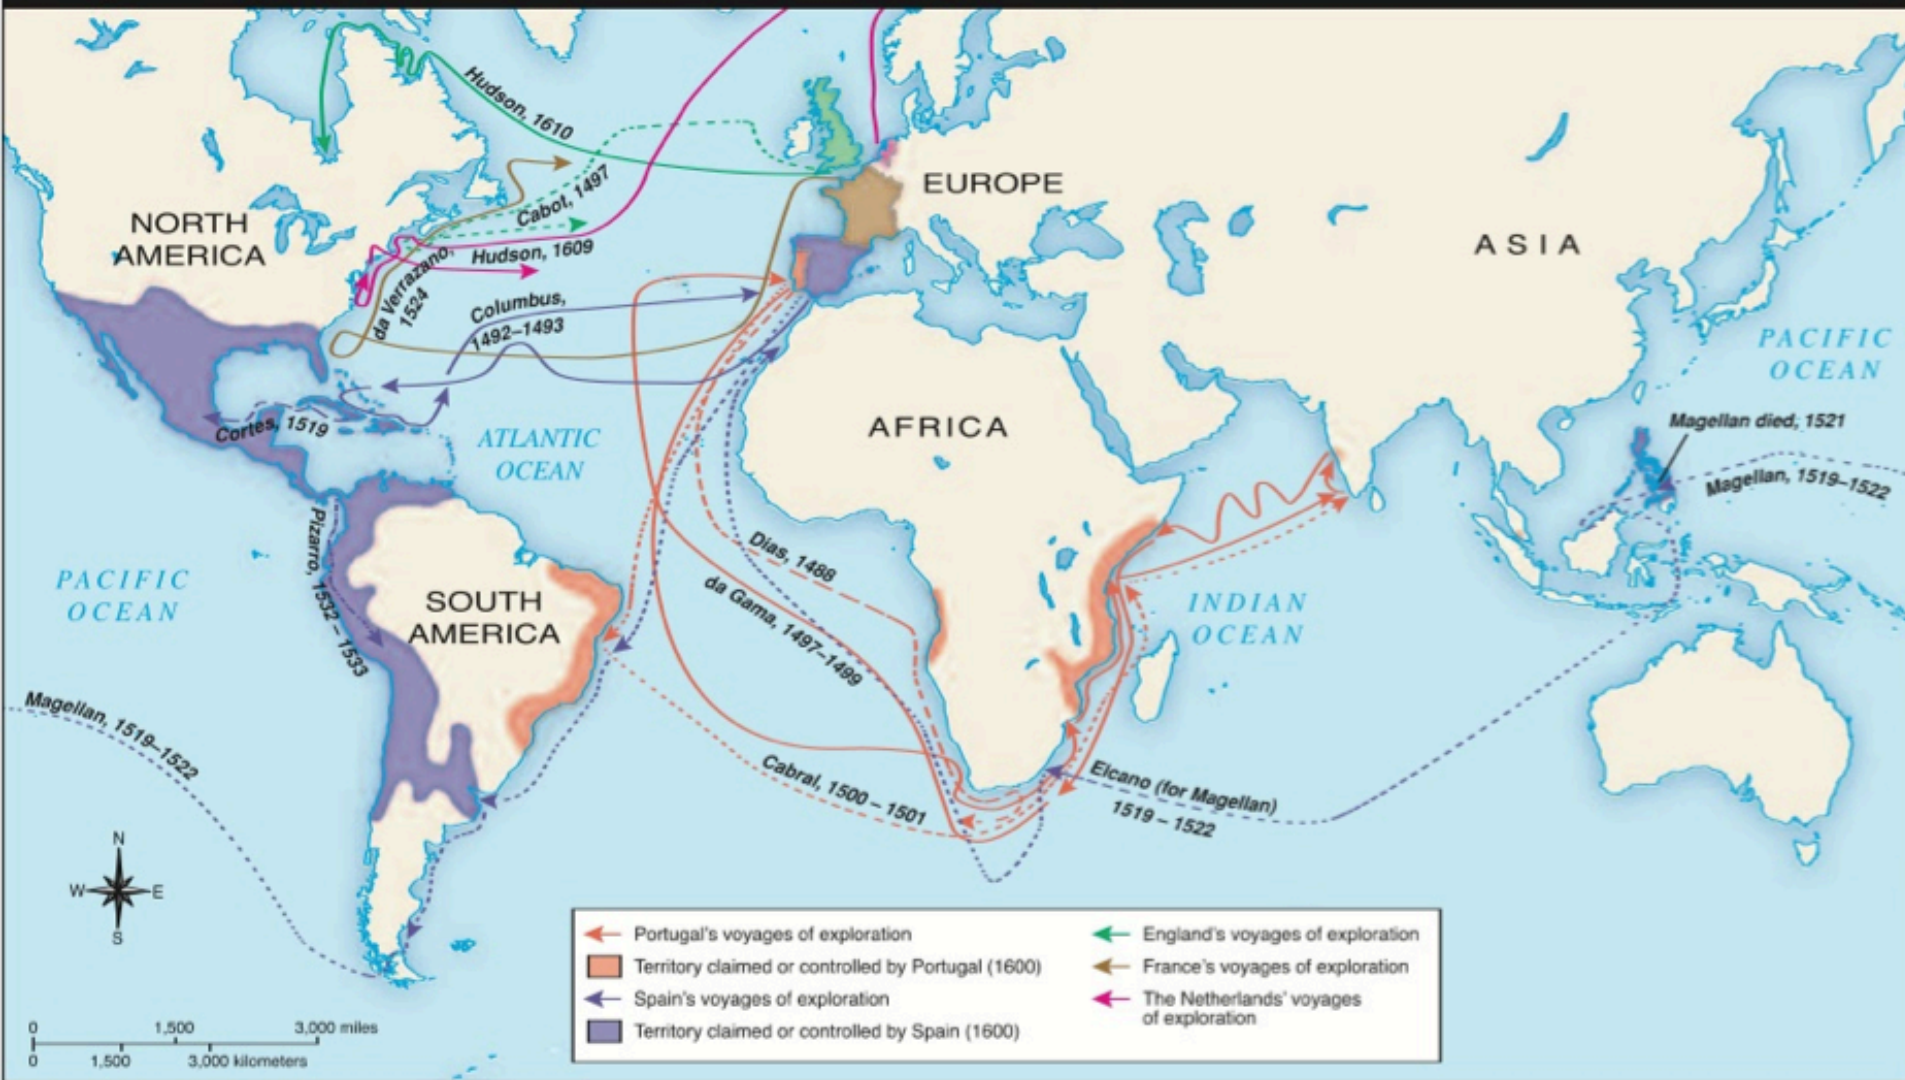

(map

Explorers

Explorer (nationality)	Country Sailing For	Achievement
Bartholomeu Dias ()
Vasco de Gama ()
Christopher Columbus ()
Vasco de Balboa ()
Ferdinand Magellan ()

European Exploration and Land Claims, 1488–1610

Impacts of Columbus

- Many countries explored America seeking a “ ” to China by boat
- America named after
 - Italian captain
 - Left detailed description of that allowed cartographers to make 1st
- To avoid conflict between this new land was split in
 - Line set by
 - East of line was for , west was for
 - Was a gamble for both sides because nobody knew