

Name: _____

Hour _____

Geography Basics review

1. Be able to identify the continents and oceans of the world on a map.
2. Be able to use and read different kinds of maps
3. What is Geography?
4. Which lines measure north and south on a map? From where is it measured (0°)?
5. Which lines measure east and west on a map? From where is it measured (0°)?
6. What does every map have? Why?
7. What are the 5 themes of Geography?
8. What is the difference between relative and absolute location?
9. Which theme deals with the characteristics of a location?
10. Which theme deals with people and things changing location and the impacts of those changes?
11. What is a push factor? Give an example.
12. What is a pull factor? Give an example.
13. How are acculturation and assimilation different?
14. Define globalization.
15. What is diffusion?
16. What traits create the culture of a society?

17. What can cause a culture to change?

18. What is a counter culture?

19. What is the difference between monotheism and polytheism?

20. What are religions that are growing rapidly and appeal to followers all over the world called?

21. Which religions are the most professed and practiced in the world?

22. What is a lingua franca?

23. What is weather?

24. How are weather and climate different?

25. What is the orographic effect?

26. How does the orographic effect change the weather and climate of locations?

27. What 3 factors influence climate and weather patterns?

28. What are solstices and equinoxes?

29. How does the moon impact Earth?

30. Define and give an example of the 4 levels of economic development.

31. What is the most basic type of economic system?

32. What is infrastructure?

33. What is the difference between a market and command economy?