

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Answer the following sets of questions about revolutionary ideas and influences by reading the corresponding sections of your textbook. You may work with up to 3 people and each take a section. Once you have picked a section to work on you may collaborate with others working on the same section.

17-1 Philosophy in the Age of Reason (p. 544-548)

How did Thomas Hobbs and John Locke differ in their views of human nature?

Define the political theory of social contract.

What are natural rights? Give the 3 examples listed in the book.

Who were philosophes? Which philosophe created the ideas of separation of powers & checks and balances?

What reference book did Diderot create that we still use today?

Who didn't Enlightenment ideas extend and apply to?

What economic philosophy was created during the Enlightenment? Define it.

17-2 Enlightenment Ideas Spread (p. 550-555)

What is censorship? How was censorship of Enlightenment ideas carried out?

Name: _____ Hour: _____

What were salons? How did they help Enlightenment ideas spread?

What 4 musicians developed the “classical” style of music during this time?

What leaders embraced and instituted Enlightenment ideas in their countries? Which countries were they from?

20-1 An Age of Ideologies (p. 634-637)

What was the goal of the Concert of Europe?

What was the “bourgeoisie”? Which groups of people were part of this group?

How was nationalism both a positive and negative thing?

Where did nationalist rebellions occur in the early 1800s?

Which group of people was the 1st to rebel? Who did they rebel against? Who helped them rebel?

How did leaders react to other uprisings elsewhere in Europe?