

Name: _____

Hour: _____

Using the resources linked on the class website, answer the following questions about Japan in China (the Rape of Nanjing), Germany and Jews (the Holocaust), and Japanese in America (Japanese internment).

The Nanjing Massacre/Rape of Nanjing

What was the Nanjing Massacre?

Why is it nicknamed the Rape of Nanjing?

How were Chiang Kai-Shek's orders of the defense of Nanjing contradictory?

Who tried protecting the citizens of Nanjing? How?

What atrocities did the Japanese commit in the attack on and conquest of Nanjing?

How many people were killed? What happened to the leaders of the massacre?

The Holocaust

How many Jews were killed during the Holocaust? What other groups were targeted?

Name: _____

Hour: _____

Why was Hitler anti-Semitic?

What was the 1st concentration camp, where was it, and who was sent there?

What did the Nuremberg Laws do?

What were ghettos?

Which group of people was the 1st to be gassed to death in 1939?

Who was the Einsatzgruppen, and what did they do?

Why didn't the Allies do anything to stop the Holocaust?

What did the Allies use to punish the Nazi offenders and reveal the true atrocities?

What did the Allies do for the survivors of the Holocaust?

Name: _____

Hour: _____

How has Germany tried to apologize for the Holocaust?

Japanese Internment in the US

Watch the video at the top of the page. In the description of the camp by a Japanese-American soldier visiting his family, what tells/shows you that these people were seen as a threat and forcibly held there?

In response to the attack on Pearl Harbor, what did Executive Order 9066 do?

How were Japanese-Americans already discriminated against prior to E.O. 9066?

Where were internment camps set up, and how many people were sent there?

How did Japanese-Americans aid the US war effort?

What did the US government do to apologize to Japanese-Americans for internment?